

UN VOYAGE DE PILERINS ALGIRIENS I LA MECQUE

"Matthew, I'd like to leave." Amanda fumbled for her cape.. "All right, North Wind," cried Amos. "Take a look at yourself." "He . . . was my brother. We were twins. Siamese twins. All those people died so I could stay alive." "You've heard of the long-period Martian seasonal theories? Well, part of it is more than a theory. The combination of the Martian polar inclination, the precessional cycle, and the eccentricity of the orbit produces seasons that are about twelve thousand years long. We're in the middle of winter, though we landed in the nominal 'summer/ It's been theorized that if there were any Martian life it would have adapted to these longer cycles. It hibernates in spores during the cold cycle, when the water and carbon dioxide freeze out at the poles, then comes out when enough ice melts to permit biological processes. We seem to have fooled these plants; they thought summer was here when the water vapor content went up around the camp." I gave her a suspicious frown, got up, and walked over to the bathroom door. I turned around, over to the side of the road and cut the engine.
